

As a member of U.S. Army Military Affiliate Radio Service, I urge the FCC to NOT approve BPL. This technology has been shown to disrupt communications by causing interference on the frequencies used by MARS, which is a service dedicated to homeland security. Indeed, there are enough sources of RF pollution to hamper emergency communications already. Thank you for your consideration.